Discussions:

1. Update on Winter Songfest- Melissa – Three schools are committed: Bella Vista, Oakdale and Ridgecrest. Let's make some posters for the schools. Melissa will meet w/Butch to decide where the students will perform and look into sound and lights. Emmaree will contact the head of the Canyons School District to see if we can't get more schools in the city to participate.
2. Update Oakdale, Reflections- Judges Emmaree – haven't heard anything from the school. We are happy to help, but need some notification.
3. Update for "Joseph"- Amy -Our royalty fee for the play was 2445.00 or about 2500.00. The initial royalty fee was to be 4000.00 but because of the smaller venue and attendance, they reduced it (Hooray!)
4. Funds we have in our account- Emmaree- Steve (City Treas.)says we have 10,025.00 remaining in our account. So, after paying for the royalty fees, we will have about 7000.00 left. Could the city tell us how much we took in from the play? Nicole Omer will find out and try to bring an accounting amount to each Arts Council Meeting.

Nicole Omer suggested having the city sponsor one night when the audience can attend the play free, such as dress rehearsal.

5. Sign-up sheets for Committees (members must sign up for a least one)
Emmaree was pleasantly surprised by the support of the Council in signing up for each of these activities.

Winter Song Fest- December 4th at Cottonwood Elementary
Literary/Writing Contest- January/February

Arts in Action Assembly- (May) It would be a general assembly with the children, then break into groups of music, theatre and art and let the children explore each area for about 20 minutes and then rotate.

Butlerville Days Art Expo and/or Entertainment- July

Musical- August

The Whitmore Library (letter from Kent Dean) would like to partner with us in our activities. (It would be a great opportunity-maybe the literary contest, etc.)

Question directed to Nicole Omer: Can we get a calendar from the city which lists their yearly events so that we may be able to coordinate our events with them?
